If only someone had ever cared enough to let you know that love could one day turn into this excruciating, soul-consuming war that makes you want to reach for the nearest knife and jab it right into another person's neck; surely you would've taken a few seconds longer before you said "I do".

You've heard all the c@*#p about love being patient and love being kind, the wisdom in the words is granted, but from where you stand you begin to appreciate that those do remain, alas, just words. How on earth did you get here?

Fuck You; For Making Me love You is a marriage and couples guidance and advice book that finally and truthfully tells you why it is that your husband hates you, and everything you stand for.
