"Papa?" Emily asked in a soft voice. "Would it be okay if I put a candle in the window?"

Her father looked at her, surprised. "Why do you want to do that?"

"So Mama can find her way home," she explained.

This is the first Christmas without Mama, and John's family is struggling to face the holiday without his loving wife. However, eight-year-old Emily is convinced her mother will come and visit her on Christmas Eve. And right now, Emily needs her mother more than ever.

Bring the magic and wonder of Christmas into your heart with this heartwarming picture book that is perfect for a wintry evening read-aloud. It just might begin a new tradition in your family.
