Last of the Baby Boomers (One Man's Journey): Barely Caught the Boomer Train Still Missed the Boat Scott Barta

Those born between 1960 and 1964 can be described as "the last of the baby boomers." But the life experiences of this subgroup are as far removed from the baby boomer generation as the generation gap between the sixties counterculture and the establishment. In Last of the Baby Boomers, Scott Barta uses his own life experiences to discuss this age bracket. He shares his frailties, tragedies, and triumphs to illustrate his observations on the human condition and how the men, in particular, of this generation have been affected economically and psychologically. With a unique combination of social commentary, personal revelation, and dark humor, the mosaic of being The Last of the Baby Boomers comes vividly to life.
