This Little Light of Mine: The Story of Sister Karen Klimczak, SSJ Joan Albarella

This one-act, one-woman play presents the life story of Sr. Karen Klimczak, SSJ. She was Buffalo, New York's "Apostle of Peace," and spent her life working for peace through non-violence. She is best known for starting a half-way house for males recently released from prison. She was murdered by one of the men living at the house. She also created dove-shaped lawn signs that say, "Peaceprints," because she felt we should not just leave fingerprints but Peaceprints, little acts of kindness.

As a pupil exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their pastime. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore, this This Little Light of Mine: The Story of Sister Karen Klimczak, SSJ can make you sense more interested to read.
