3:00 A.M.: More Musings from Outside the Universal Ric Couchman

3:00 A.M. explores poetically the notions we have of love and evil and challenges the traditions that we have built up around these themes. It places religious traditions alongside modern norms and asks us to reflect on the relationship between these differing perspectives. Darkness, that internal and external construct with which we have struggled throughout our human existence is a fundamental theme that the book also explores.
