Slave Time: Midnight Howard Potts

Tom Smart planned to be a journalist and interview the giants of industry and government. The Great Depression changed his plans. Instead, he ended up in the Deep South interviewing former slaves. Along the way, Tom's journey through "slave time" finds his perceptions of the world around him changing, altering himself and his life in ways he never expected. Slave Time: Midnight is a fictional story based on actual interviews with former slaves by the WPA Federal Writers' Project in the 1930s. The best of these stories are the basis for this novel.
