Christ My Righteousness Boitshoko Rakgwale

Christ My Righteousness is a book that brings liberation to one's spirit since we look to Christ as the only perfect saviour (Isaiah 43 vs. 11 "I am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour"). It also brings an end to man's pride because pure righteousness that cannot be tampered with is only found in Christ. Since the inception of the church, there have been debates about the work of grace and law and creating a balance to be effective as a believer. This book defines grace and law, describing how Christ wants us to live in him. The book concludes the matter through use of scriptures about our stand point in Christ. About the author Boitshoko Rakgwale was born and raised at a small village called Taung in North West - South Africa. In 2005, aged 17, she gave her life to Christ. In 2007, aged 19, she had a divine visitation from the Lord Jesus regarding her purpose. Ever since this encounter with Christ she has never looked back but continues to carry the message of Christ in boldness and purity. Due to her young age in the ministry, she has had to try and prove that indeed she is called by God. Although she has never proved her call, she has rested in the grace that was poured upon her as a prophet and teacher of the word of God, and the anointing in the prophetic and teaching has spoken for her. Boitshoko Rakgwale is the founder and President of BoitshokoR Ministries an NPO Organization which aims to present the gospel of Christ in truth and love with a prophetic, graced voice across denominations and countries. As well as being a minister of the gospel of Christ, she is also involved in prison ministry, hospital ministry and many charitable organizations as an extended hand of Christ to show his love, grace and mercy. Boitshoko Rakgwale is a firm believer and evidence of the pure grace that is found in Christ to walk in purpose and arrive at one's destiny safely. Her heartfelt desire is to present the sound doctrine of God in purity and love.
