Faith of a Child Sophia Yolanda

Poetic Memoirs, written over the course of 21 years, Faith of a Child chronicles one Christian's Spiritual Journey, from childhood to mid-life. What can be expected from a child who is the product of a home filled with violence and domestic abuse? Faith gives us the answers psychologists and clinicians can't predict. Set in the context of reflections on early childhood years, teen years, College Life, Young Adult, Marriage Life, and Mid-Life, a rich experience emerges through the poems and inspirations that brought healing and spiritual growth, from faith to faith, from glory to glory. If you have the courage to embark on this journey, hold on tight and traverse through hills, Valleys, mountaintops, and beyond! Prayerfully, your life will also be enriched through a transparent testimony of the Faith of a Child. Be blessed!
