The Back Stage Guide Broadway (Backstage Books) Robert Viagas

Geared toward tourists traveling to New York, but appropriate for residents as well, this book is an easy-to-use, nuts-and-bolts guide to enjoying theater in New York City. Lively and far more in-depth than a general tour book, it tells travelers how to pick a show, how to buy tickets, the best times to see shows, how to get tickets for shows that are sold out, how to get refunds in the event a trip is canceled, how to spot scalpers, and what to do if the show closes before a show date. Entire sections are devoted to discount tickets, how to use the subway and stay safe in New York City, where to eat, where to stay, and much more.

- A brief history of theater in New York
- A foldout map of the theater district
- A glossary of theater terminology
- Seating charts for all the Broadway theaters
- How to meet your favorite Broadway star
- Where to find discount tickets
- Best times of year to see theater in NYC
- Best times of the week to see theater in NYC
- How to get tickets for shows that are sold out
- How to get refunds in the event your trip is cancelled
- What to do if the show closes before your show date
- Where to eat (more than 60 restaurants reviewed)
- Where to stay (more than 20 hotels reviewed)
- How to use the subway
- Other things to see and do in the theater district
