Do you consider yourself bi-curious? Do you have a fetish for girls underwear? Maybe you've tried on panties or pantyhose and loved the feeling? Do you ever browse a dating website like Craigslist and get turned on by the men for men postings?

I had never had much luck with women. Naturally, I started toying with the idea of what it would feel like to hook up with a guy. I wasn't really going to do it, but it was kind of amusing to think about. Eventually I started to chat with other guys about it online. Then, one day, I talked to a guy who lived right near me, and happened to be interested in the same kind of things. Would it really be that dangerous to meet him and see what happened?

This book is a warning to any straight guys out there who might be considering trying gay sex. It's a slippery slope and, at least in my case, it led me to becoming a gay sissy. I can't speak for everybody, but once I got a taste of the lifestyle I became addicted. Although I am still attracted to girls, I am a hopeless sissy now. I can never go back to straight dating. And I'm not the normal kind of gay, either. I cross-dress and think of myself as a girl. I'm the girl in every relationship I have with guys, if you know what I mean. I'm into BDSM, I beg to be tied up and spanked. I'm not just a girl, I'm a dirty girl, a naughty slut. Sorry, Mom.

I'm writing this not to scare you, but to warn you and to let you know it's not that bad. Being the girl in a relationship can be a lot of work, and it can even be pretty painful in bed. But it was also the part of my life that was always missing. I finally feel complete now that I put on panties and pantyhose every morning rather than boxers and pants.

Obviously, adult situations abound—reader discretion advised.
