His body became my canvas...

Brea

How did I end up here?

Always the good girl, with a pen in my hand just focusing on my drawings.

Now I'm a tattoo artist dealing with some of the baddest guys around town.

They're mostly harmless to me, and I pay them no attention.

Until I'm face-to-face with a stranger with a broad chest and a smoldering gaze that is leaving my legs trembling and my heart racing.

He's a man of a few words, and the exact opposite of what my mind is telling me I need. But I am drawn to him like no one else before.

There's just one other problem, my brother Sylar thinks I'm his property.

Miles

Guys like me don't fall in love, just f*ck and move on.

So what am I doing back in her tattoo shop when I already have more ink on my body than I can fit?

Maybe it's the thought of her hands spread across my chest while working on a new piece.

Or her good girl attitude and gorgeous smile that drives me insane thinking about how I would turn her bad in just one night.

Whatever it is, I NEED her body pinned underneath mine, moaning my name until she forgets her own.

But in my world, there is no such thing as love without tears or bloodshed...
