Maia lays splayed on the side of the volcano, chains holding her tight. Open. Vulnerable. The God of the Volcano is coming for her.

A spunky young woman who takes no crap from anyone, Maia was popular in her village. But when her evil step-father wants to inherit her share of her deceased mother's successful vineyard, he plots with the corrupt priest of the volcano to make sure that Maia's name comes up as the next sacrifice.

Now the girl with an attitude of fire lays bound and spread, a sacrifice for the gods. But when the god of the volcano comes out of his slumber horny and sees the fiery girl laid out before him, it's not her life that he wants to take, but her virginity!

Maia: Sacrifice to the Gods is an 8,000 word short story set in an ancient Mediterranean village that includes graphic scenes of bondage and domination.
