Rayne had no reason to think anything would change during her final final year at school, yet when she entered her first session of the day, she felt a set of eyes fixed on her; studying her as she walked across the classroom. Rayne was very familiar with the feeling. She was use to feeling men's eyes on her. She casually glanced around the room to see if she could get a sense of who was watching her. Rayne observed that while nearly every man had noticed her, only one set of eyes were fixated on her: those of Professor Lang.
