A comprehensive flashcard study system to help candidates pass the Architecture Registration Exam. (A.R.E.) This dynamic and interactive study aid will dramatically increase your retention of the facts and improve your exam performance.

Each set contains over 1,100 cards covering all six multiple choice sections of the new computerized exam, plus a Site Planning Review section. Each section: Pre-Design, Site Planning Review, General Structures, Lateral Forces, Mechanical & Electrical Systems, Materials & Methods, and Construction Documents & Services is color coded and indexed for easy identification. Each card has been carefully researched and written to provide you with precise, accurate information. Definitions, diagrams, equations, multiple-choice they're all here, with detailed answers and explanations.

Archiflash prompts you to respond quickly and effectively to random questions just as you would on the exam. Archiflash is designed to be fun and interesting in order to reduce procrastination. This is not passive reading. Cards are arranged randomly within each section to prevent memorization by association. Each study session can be different. Immediate feedback and constant mental stimulation eliminate boredom. Working with friends or alone studying will take on a whole new meaning with Archiflash.

Archiflash will save you valuable time and energy. You'll benefit from the knowledge of experts. Give yourself the edge with time saving charts, essential definitions, and clarifying diagrams, more information than you ever thought possible in an easy to use flashcard format.

Take Archiflash with you wherever you go; to work, out to lunch, on a plane. Shuffle the set to challenge your retention of the facts. Lay the cards out on a table for direct comparisons. Archiflash is active learning, not passive reading. Use Archiflash in groups. Create you own study games. Preparing for the A.R.E. really can be fun. No other review material will match Archiflash. Archiflash has quickly become the essential study aid in the U.S.A., Puerto Rico and Canada to prepare for the Architect Registration Exam (A.R.E.).
