Uncle Juan's Cabin: -- A Novel -- Peter M. Hemming

In 2010, The Great Melting Pot is melting down! In the spirit of Orwell's "1984," this novel is an exciting political thriller and commentary on society itself. Despite terrorists, militias, kidnappings, assassinations, behind-the-scenes suspense, and historic tie-ins, the story manages to integrate an adventurous long-term romance between a deserving couple who we can all relate to. AND this novel is especially poignant for today's immigration debate! A timely page-turner which is more appropriate now than at the time it was published. The novel inspires and entertains by helping us really look at our changing nation.
