If I say something and you crack up, I'm bursting inside with happiness. And making someone like Corinne laugh, super starlet, sex symbol, girl I'm just totally stupidly infatuated with, yeah, that was like magic.

Tabitha Bloom has a pretty frenetic life. As head writer for the venerated live sketch comedy show This Saturday, her job is to make people laugh. But she's spent so much of her time with her head down, her life buried in work, that she hasn't stopped for a moment to see how far she's come and what she's achieved. No time for self-reflection when you have a live show to put together. And, of course, no time for a relationship either.

But when Corinne Holmstrom guest hosts the show, Tab can't help but be starstruck over the mega celebrity actress. Who could blame her? Corinne is beautiful, famous, successful and... is she coming on to Tab? There's no way that Corinne is a lesbian, she always dates the hunkiest Hollywood actors. Best to just forget about her. Move on. Get back to work. Still, there's something about Corinne that Tab can't shake and this sweetheart starlet is too special to ignore.

Will Tab find the romance she's been seeking in this young Hollywood actress? Or will the pressures that fame has put on Corinne cause this romantic comedy to bomb? With the public watching your every move, it's no wonder Hollywood's elite are so secretive... something Tab is about to learn first hand.
