Cathedral C. J. Henning

Cathedral is a book of poetry trying to answer questions about faith, the existence of God, and the trials and tribulations that we put ourselves through to ignore Him. Some of the poems are whimsical and others serious. Many are questioning where logic has left the building and made its home in a world of chaos. This is one of a few books of poetry written by C. J. Henning on various subjects. Some of you who have short attention spans will enjoy many of the poems. Those who have more time sitting in a chair will be satisfied with lengthier ones.
