Right Here Waiting K.E. Belledonne

In 1942, Ben Williams had it all a fulfilling job, adoring friends and the love of his life, Pete Montgomery. But World War II looms. When Pete follows his conscience and joins the Army Air Forces as a bomber pilot, Ben must find the strength to stay behind without the love of his life, the dedication to stay true and the courage he never knew he'd need to discover his own place in the war effort. Good friends help keep him afloat, until a chance meeting on the homefront brings him an unexpected ally one who will accompany him from the stages of New York City to the hell of the European warfront in search of his love.
