Real People Sharing Strange Encounters with the Unknown: Book One - unexplained events experienced by real people with the dark frightening unknoww (Real ... Strange Encounters with the Unknown) Chris Holly

Imagine you wake up one morning and cannot find your cat. You walk out to your deck calling your pet's name when you find your beloved cat mutilated and left posed for you to find

Or perhaps a few days after a shopping trip with your sister you become extremely ill. You become so sick you need to be hospitalized. With your world turned upside down you discover during your strange illness that somewhere along that shopping trip you had a strange ring placed on your finger which stuns and frightens you

How about you work nights. One night as your shift ends you walk to your car following your normal routine, ready to drive the 15-minute ride to your home when you go missing for three hours. What takes place shakes you to the bone.

All of these are real events that have happened to people exactly like you

Frightening, however, told to us by those who lived these encounters. The real fear , however, is that it may only be time before it is your turn to be the one who finds they are alone looking into the cold dead eyes of the unknown.
