Madeira Applique by Machine: Plus Heirloom Sewing from A to Z Martha Pullen

From Introduction: "Madeira applique originated on the island of Madeira in Portugal. It involves stitching a fabric onto another fabric. By hand, the raw edges are turned under and the folded edge is stitched down using the Point de Paris stitch. Here, we have adapted it so that it can be done on the sewing machine. This technique can be used for applying borders or shapes to collars, cuffs, etc." Includes three full-size patterns: To-The-Waist Dress and Sleeveless Dress (both in sizes 4-12) and Heirloom Party Dress (in sizes 3 mo. to 10 years).
