CLEAN & WHOLESOME WESTERN ROMANCE

Disaster after disaster strikes her precious family and at her wits' end, twenty-year old Ruby Warner agrees to become a mail order bride. Full of hope, she travels across the state of Montana in order to secure a brighter future for her and her young siblings. But disaster isn't done with her yet...

At a young twenty-five, Guy Smith, Sheriff's Deputy, lost his beloved wife to cancer. Now years later he is determined not to suffer another heartbreak so he hides his emotions behind a mask of indifference and simplicity. He finds life easier this way. But the life of those in protective services is never ordinary or simple. Disaster or Destiny? Regardless, Guy, Ruby and the people closest to them have their lives irrevocably changed in a few moments. Can they take a gamble on love when so much is at risk?
