Paper Transformed: A Handbook of Surface-Design Recipes and Creative Paper Projects Julia Andrus
Paper is a bountiful and inexpensive resource that can be transformed into amazing works of art once touched by the skilled paper artist's hand. This book would serve as the ultimate, up-to-date resource for any paper crafter, artist, or designer who wishes to create and use hand-designed papers; offering step-by-step illustrated instructions for 100 styles of beautiful handmade papers and offering a gallery of ideas for how to use them. The paper treatments would cover some traditional processes as well as numerous variations with scores of new and original paper treatments and project applications from the author.

The application possibilities are endless as are the ways the papers can be used: for bookbinding and journal making, scrapbooks, card making, paper sculpture, paper jewelry, collage, home décor, and more.
