Will Jessica give in to Paul's demands?

Jessica and Paul were very close when they were growing up together in the same house, when suddenly and without warning, he turned on her. He made her life miserable, scaring off any boy who showed any interest in her before moving away to college and out of her life.

In his absence, Jessica managed to get a boyfriend, but after five years, he left her for another woman. Devastated, she has a night with her best friend planned for clubbing and partying. Before she can make it out of the house, she finds out that Paul is back and when he find out about the breakup, has no intention of letting her go anywhere.

That's because he wants her. He wants her in the most forbidden, taboo way and he won't take no for an answer. Jessica knows it's wrong, but it feels so right. She can't help but give into to him and let him take her innocent and pure body hard and without protection.
