Who Killed Jesus? is a careful examination of the facts surrounding the death of Christ as reported by those who were present when he died. Unlike Bill O'Reilly's book Killing Jesus, it is based on the eye witness accounts in the Holy Bible. The author considers all the possibilities. Was it the religious leaders? Was it the political leaders? Was it Judas? Was it the false witnesses? Where were the witnesses for the defense? Was it God the Father? Did Jesus fulfill the prophecies from the Old Testament? Did he know that he was going to die? Did he want to die? Why did he have to die? The author uses the English Standard Version of the Bible which is easy to read and understand. She sees this book as being used for evangelism. as a devotional guide for Lent, at Easter, and for those who read O'Reilly's book and need to know "the rest of the story".
