Be careful what you wish for

Mele Keahi thought she was going for a vacation at her aunt's – just what she needed after a breakup and a lifetime of heartbreak since her mother disappeared. What she wasn't expecting was finding a new guy... or that dead body on the doorstep! Could her sweet aunt really be involved? Or was it someone else near and dear to her? And then there was the handsome ghost from her Hawaiian childhood. Not what she'd bargained for--but sometimes you just have to deal with what the cat dragged in. Will she figure that out before the murderer finds a way to silence her forever?

Yummy recipes for Hawaiian style cooking in each book--Chicken Hekka in this one.

The books in this series have minor themes that run through them all, but each story can stand on its own.
