Go behind the curtain for first-hand accounts and exclusive conversations with the legends of rock. Scattered among the interviews is the story of the man at the microphone. From his upbringing in Oshawa, Ontario, through numerous moves across the country, Jeff Woods has followed his passion wherever it's taken him. Radio, Records & Rockstars is an honest, open and nostalgic romp through Woods's successful career in radio and the music business. Jeff reveals the unvarnished truth of his own storied life, including his professional and romantic peaks and valleys. This work of reflection, revelation and conversation relates the stumbles and defeats, truths and triumphs of the artists who will go down in history as helping to define a generation—and of the man who brought their stories to millions of listeners across Canada.
