One summer's day in 1851, Brushwood the butler is left with sole responsibility for looking after his master's young guest, Miss Armingdale. Brushwood is hard put to know how to entertain her, but then he discovers that she has already invented a game of her own. The fun lies in drinking as much as she possibly can without letting herself go to the bathroom. By the time Brushwood arrives she is really desperate for a wee. But Brushwood has brought with him a jug of lemonade. A large one. This story is part of Clemency Jopling's 'erotic quickies' series. It is intended for adult readers only. AND...
