Rays of Sunshine: Women During the Holocaust Melissa Provines

Written by an education major at Oklahoma Baptist University in Shawnee, OK, “Rays of Sunshine: Women During the Holocaust” is more than a research paper. It includes photographs and personal notes from the author telling how a visit to the concentration camp in Dachau, Germany broke her heart and instilled in her a new appreciation for each day and a determination to make her life count. Warning: This material contains graphic descriptions which may not be suitable for young readers.
