A caballo entre tres mundos (Spanish Edition) Nastalblanco

La vida de Brahim, protagonista de este relato, desde su infancia compartida entre Tinduf y Madrid hasta la conquista de un bien ganado prestigio como medico en su pais y fuera de el, es el hilo conductor que nos adentra en la precaria forma de vida del pueblo saharai, sus conflictos internos. Nos muestra una realidad que difiere de la somera idea que existe de ese pueblo y las circunstancias en que malvive. Su dominio del castellano y su evidente facilidad para el estudio aconsejan a la autoridad saharai enviarle a cursar estudios de medicina a Cuba. Los anos de permanencia en esa isla le permiten observar otra forma de vida distinta. Tambien con carencias importantes de libertad, pero a pesar de todo diferente a la su pais. Alli conoce a Zoe que se convertira en la mujer de su vida. El contacto con su familia permite a Brahim un conocimiento mas profundo de la realidad cubana, precisamente en el momento en que se empezaba a vislumbrar el fin del embargo de Estados Unidos. Ante la boda que, poco a poco, va cuajando, Brahim deja muy claro que su intencion es ejercer la medicina en su campamento, a lo que Zoe, ya graduada como enfermera, presta ilusionada su adhesion. La boda se celebra primero por el rito catolico en Cuba, y mas tarde por el arabe en Tinduf, unido a la ilusion del nuevo estado y el hecho de poder ejercer su profesion junto a su marido sumen a Zoe en una felicidad contagiosa a la que tambien colabora el trato que recibe de todas las personas que va conociendo, las costumbres y las tradiciones. El prestigio que Brahim va consiguiendo como cirujano sobrepasa las fronteras de su mundo en el desierto, y esto le obliga a frecuentes estancias fuera de Tinduf. Esta nueva forma de estar en la profesion y en la familia, el nacimiento de su primer hijo, y un segundo que viene de camino, mutaran completamente el sentido de su vida matrimonial."
