Black Light: Poetry Ms. Rhoza Andret Lee

In her first collection of poetry, Rhoza Lee lets her light shine by introducing her readers to poems that were written with love to awaken the mind, soul, and culture of her people. The poems in this collection will empower its readers by letting them know the value of their existence and the truth of their inheritance that has been hidden for so many years. In her writing, Lee does just as she has been assigned and brings forth knowledge that will educate her people about themselves and their worth. It has been said that the truth shall set you free, and after reading "Black Light" so it shall be.
