Not Just One: Running From Mystery (Volume 1) DebiLyn Smith

Northern B.C. author DebiLyn Smith is now Running From Mystery with her latest book, a novel, Not Just One. This comes literally on the heels of launching her first book this past May, Running from Cancer - a tilted memoir. DebiLyn Smith uses the same page- flipping flow and humour to rise up and fight back again, this time using a fictitious comical cast and scenery based in Halston, a town that greatly resembles her hometown of Houston. Frazzled single mother and electronic store manager Kathy Sands battles for her children and her life throughout the disturbing disappearance of her babysitter and the re-appearance of her tooth-pick twirling “wasband.” When fingers point at Billy he also vanishes, taking their children with him. Billy is wanted by Kathy, the sheriff, the police and a desperate drug dealer named Snake who figures if Kathy dies, Billy will show for the funeral. Despite flying snakes, a tango with a boa and explosions, Kathy must find her children and her babysitter and learn to put both feet and Not Just One down with all the men in her life, father included, before it ends in catastrophe for them all.
