Too Deep For Words Danielle Shaw

“Romantic fiction of the highest order is the stock-in-trade of author Danielle Shaw” - *Hertfordshire Countryside Magazine

Anna and Bjorn are happily married, living a quiet life in Hertfordshire.

Bjorn works as a furniture maker while Anna works with children, hoping she too will have a baby of her own.

But for now life is good, with a lovely husband and lots of good friends from her days in the theatre.

Tom is married to Lucy. They live in London with their son Alexander.

Back when Tom and Anna had worked together on a film in Poland, they spent the night together, but how far did things go?

As the years pass, both Anna and Bjorn and Tom and Lucy add to their families.

Bjorn branches out into designing homes, while Tom goes to Hollywood, much to the delight of his wife, Lucy.

But then tragedy strikes for Anna and Bjorn, the first of many for the small family.

And when Tom tires of Hollywood, his fragile marriage pays the price.

Caught up in chaos and financial ruin, it falls to Anna's spoiled daughter Imogen to try to set everything right.

But is it too late for love?

Too Deep For Words is a charming love story guaranteed to warm the heart. It is a sequel to A Fabric of Dreams.
