Julius's adventure as the last man on the planet continues, with a team of elite female commandos storming his house in the middle of the night to bring them to the leader of what remains of the free world. Instead of finding himself quarantined, he ends up getting an island vacation, with plenty of women there to take care of him, including the woman who raised him. It's hard for him to give up his old life, but even harder, sexier problems await him as the urge to give in to overwhelming temptation begins to set in.
