Liz Form loved everything alien, so each year she volunteered at the convention center expo. This year she noticed a really sexy blue dipped man walking by her. She isn't able to keep her eyes off of him and he approaches her. They hit it off instantly.

Allen Hasih isn't just a regular man though; he's a real to life alien. It's not shocking to Liz who is friends with other aliens, but what is shocking is her attraction to him. She jumps at the chance to travel back to his planet with him and get to know him.

But she is soon faced with a hard decision, can she give up her life on Earth to be with this alien she barely knows, but has intense feelings for?

Liz is torn between the life she's known her whole life and a planet that she has never seen before. Allen doesn't help her make up her mind; instead they decide to wait until she sees his planet.

Will she like the planet, will their love be able to continue and last forever? Read and find out what happens in this alien romance.
